

Chisholme Volunteer Fund

Of all the first time visitors to Chisholme well over half come as volunteers, to work on anything that is needed in return for their bed and board. Whether in the garden or on the estate, in the kitchen or managing the boilers, their contribution to the life of the place is crucial.

Volunteering at Chisholme is an unparalleled opportunity for school leavers, gap-year students, unemployed or unwaged people, indeed anyone at all to have a taste of another, possibly life-changing, perspective in beautiful surroundings and good company.

This fund is dedicated to supporting volunteers at Chisholme, allowing first time volunteers to come for two weeks and subsidising the stay of longer term volunteers.

Many thanks for your support!
